Notes about Transfer Coursework:

- For college-level coursework to transfer to UA, students are required to earn a grade of C or higher.
- The letter grade of the foundational coursework will be used in the calculation of a student's Foundation GPA at the point of Professional Admissions to the BSBA Program.
- However, the letter grade earned will not be used in the calculation of a student's UA Cumulative GPA.

Checklist for Transferring Foundational Coursework to UA:

- Once enrolled in transferable coursework at an AZ Community College, send unofficial transcript and proof of completion to assigned Eller Advisor.
- When the final grade is earned in the transfer course, send unofficial transcript and proof of completion to assigned Eller Advisor, to maintain enrollment in sequenced coursework at UA.
- Send official transcripts to the University of Arizona once the Community College grade is posted.

General Note:

- If you are interested in taking English, Second Language, or General Education coursework outside the UA, refer to the UA Transfer Credit & Articulation's Transfer Credit Guide and/or speak with assigned Eller Advisor.
