Admissions

The Eller Executive MBA program looks for students who bring strengths and aspirations to our cohort-learning environment, and who possess the ability to be part of an MBA program in which they are the co-creators of their experience.

What We Look For

- The Eller Executive MBA is reserved for professionals with seven or more years of significant experience showing positions of leadership and progressive responsibility.
- Employees with less experience may also be admitted if their career history demonstrates leadership potential and successful management of significant projects and assignments. These employees must procure a letter of endorsement from an executive-level supervisor.
- Reserving admission for this select group allows for a more advanced curriculum with a focus on executive-level analyses and challenges and creates a class of professionals with equitable levels of experience and industry influence.
- View class profile

Application Requirements

A complete application consists of the following items:

- A completed online application form (apply online)
- Application Fee ($90)
- Statement of purpose
- A professional résumé
- One professional letter of recommendation
- One copy of official transcripts* from each university, college or community college attended
- GMAT/GRE waived
- TOEFL score (this is a proof of English proficiency requirement for international applicants born in a country where English is not the official language). Results should be sent to The University of Arizona Institution Code: 4832.

*We will accept unofficial versions of your school documents for initial evaluation purposes only and this acceptance does not eliminate the need for official school documents to be submitted. Also, include a copy of the grading scale or transcript key for each school transcript. Refer to the UA Graduate College transcript requirements for more information.

- Interviews are by invitation and will be conducted over Zoom

International Students

While the majority of the students in our evening program are domestic students, we do enroll a small number of international students, who are typically working for local companies and currently hold a visa or are a permanent resident. The University of Arizona does NOT issue student visas for this program.

Cost and Funding

The cost of the program is $77,000. Tuition includes all eBooks and electronic course materials as well as lodging (single occupancy) during class weekends, Strategic Innovation immersion trip (single occupancy), and Global Business Experience trip (single occupancy). Trips are subject to change and an equivalent experience may be offered.

There is also a $90 application fee and $500 non-refundable enrollment fee. The University of Arizona charges a $35 fee at graduation to process and mail the diploma earned.

* Costs are subject to change with the Approval of the Arizona Board of Regents (ABOR).

 Tuition does not include transportation during class weekends, or airfare for the domestic and international immersions.

Tuition Payment

Processing of tuition payments for the Eller Executive MBA program are through the University of Arizona Bursar's Office.

Participants can pay using cash, check, cashier's check, money order, VISA, Master Card, American Express, or company purchase order (through a financial guarantee). Details are available on the Bursar's Office website.

Students whose companies are funding their education should follow the guidelines for sponsors.

Please note that tuition, payment dates, and process are subject to change. Find additional information the Bursar's Office website.

Student Conduct

Eller MBA Academic Integrity Policy

We strive to prepare MBA professionals who can pursue careers in demanding and competitive environments with skill and integrity. To this end, we work to foster a climate of honesty, collaboration, and respect. The Eller MBA Department's Academic Integrity Policy follows the Dean of Student's Policy for The University of Arizona. Our success in promoting a culture of honesty and respect will depend on the extent to which all members of the Eller community embrace these standards, holding themselves and those with whom they work accountable in their daily actions and words.

What is Academic Integrity?

Academic Integrity is a character trait involving honesty and ethical behavior related to scholarly work. Scholarly work involves all the intellectual endeavors of a student or faculty member during their course of study/employment related to education. Pursuing a mindset of integrity is not only important during one's academic career, but also throughout one's life and dealings with society. Academic Dishonesty involves unethical behavior conducted by either students or faculty related to scholarship. It can involve a variety of activities from cheating to plagiarism.

Potential Consequences of Academic Dishonesty

- failing grade on assignment
- failing the course
- removal from program of study
- expulsion from university

Forms of Academic Dishonesty (this is not an exhaustive list)

- providing forged documents, using fake information, or submitting plagiarized material during the admission process
- using the same assignment for more than one class without the instructor's prior consent
- using unauthorized materials (cheat sheets, notes, textbook, talking with other individuals, etc.) during examinations without the instructor's prior consent
- gaining unauthorized access to examinations prior to the exam date and time
- submitting someone else's work as your own (includes various forms of plagiarism and having someone else do the work for you)
- submitting false research or laboratory information as actual results
- using fake documents to gain an extension of time to submit work or take an examination

Academic Writing

Features of academic writing include:

- a well-crafted, thoroughly researched argument
- written with the appropriate audience in mind
- displays critical thinking, reading, and writing
- free from common errors of spelling, punctuation, syntax, and grammar
- avoids all forms of plagiarism
- cites all sources

Plagiarism

Anyone who has written or graded a paper knows that plagiarism is not always a black-and-white issue. The boundary between plagiarism and research is often unclear. Learning to recognize the various forms of plagiarism, especially the more ambiguous ones, is an important step in the fight to prevent it.

 - The Institute for Writing and Rhetoric provides a variety of resources including information about logic and argument and writing a thesis.
- George Washington University Writing Center <http://www.gwu.edu/~gwriter/Resources.html>
 - The GWU Writing Center provides an assortment of writing guides for various subject areas as well as other useful writing resources

All Eller MBA students must sign the Eller MBA Academic Integrity Policy

Eller MBA Academic Integrity Policy Form

All members of the Eller MBA Program are expected to know the Academic Integrity Policy's content and implications. Lack of familiarity with the policy will not excuse integrity violations.

Complete information about the Code of Academic Integrity can be reviewed at <https://deanofstudents.arizona.edu/policies/code-academic-integrity>, as well as the Student Code of Conduct at <https://deanofstudents.arizona.edu/student-rights-responsibilities/student-code-conduct>. Violations include, but may not be limited to:

Integrity Violations in Academic Conduct:

- Direct use of the words or ideas of another without giving proper credit, including material drawn from print, televised, or electronic sources.
- Submission of the same or substantially same assignment to different instructors, without the express permission of the later instructor.
- Unauthorized use of another person's work, in part or in whole, on assignments (including work done in conjunction with another student) and in exams.
- Receiving or giving unauthorized assistance on exams, quizzes, or assignments.
- Using unauthorized materials during an exam or on assignments.

It is every student's responsibility to seek clarification from faculty on class rules before an assignment is turned in. It is unacceptable to submit an assignment and then claim lack of knowledge of the rules by which it was governed.

Integrity Violations in Personal Conduct:

- Taking or attempting to take the property of another without permission.
- Misrepresenting the truth or furnishing false information, with the intent of gaining unfair personal advantage, or causing harm to another.
- Verbal or physical harassment of any kind, aimed at any individual or group.
- Inappropriate use of another student's personal information.
- Inappropriate use of D2L or other University of Arizona information systems.

Faculty members are responsible for describing rules specific to their classes beyond the general policy and will determine the penalties for violations. Penalty for violations listed could include:

- Failing grade for an assignment or course in which the violation occurred.
- Inability to obtain recommendation letters for graduate school or employment.
- Removal from the Eller MBA Major or Eller College.

Eller MBA follows the Dean of Students processes regarding academic integrity. Additional information regarding this can be found at Dean of Students.

Program Requirements

Curriculum

To earn the Executive MBA degree, you must complete 43 units (credits).

Core courses are offered in a cohort model completed in 21 months. There are two sessions per each eight-week semester where students are enrolled in classes. Starting in the second year, students may take optional online electives to complete an area of concentration.* Information on this option will be distributed the semester prior to those courses becoming available.

*Online course schedule is subject to change and enrollment is subject to availability.

University of Arizona, Eller Executive MBA Core Courses:

BNAD 562: Applied Business Statistics (2 units)

Probability and statistical analysis; More advance random variables, sampling distributions, hypothesis testing, Bayesian analysis, time series, statistical investigation. Conceptual understanding of advanced, applied, inferential statistics with emphasis on use as a managerial decision-making tool.

BCOM 511: Communication Management (3 units)

This course introduces a strategic approach to professional communication, examines principles of effective writing and speaking, and provides practice for developing a more polished, focused, and professional persona. Key components include audience analysis, communicator credibility, message construction, design, delivery, and style flexibility.

ECON 550: Economics for Managers (2 units)

Firm decision making to sustain competitive advantage in the context of different market structures and regulatory environments.

MGMT 501: Leadership in Organizations (2 units)

During the course, we will be examining and evaluating several theories and techniques for leading individuals, as well as exploring the concept of corporate social responsibility. At the end of this course, participants should be able to translate theories into more specific competencies that will improve their ability to lead and manage in today's corporate and non-profit environment.

ACCT 540: Introduction to Financial Accounting (2 units)

Principles and procedures underlying the financial accounting process and their application in the preparation and analysis of financial statements.

MIS 585: Strategic Management of Information Systems (2 units)

The objective of this course is to define how a business manager can work with an IS professional to articulate the value of an IT solution (project).

ACCT 545: Introduction to Managerial Accounting (2 units)

This course presents an overview of managerial accounting concepts, focusing on providing and evaluating accounting information for decision making, planning and control of operations and organizations, and strategic management.

MKTG 510: Market-Based Management (2 units)

Market and customer analysis for product service, price, promotion and distribution decisions; study of marketing management theories and practices to maximize customer value and satisfaction.

MGMT 520: Managing Ethics in Organizations (2 units)

Given the plethora of recent high-profile corporate scandals and financial misconduct on Wall Street, leading ethically is an important skill for MBA students interested in long-term success. We have seen a massive decline in the public's trust of organizations and their leaders. Trust is an essential component of conducting business, and the ability to trust peers and business partners, and to operate in an environment where laws are taken seriously, are goals which every MBA student should strive to achieve. In this course, students will gain the ability to identify traps that business professionals fall into that result in ethical lapses and develop skills in utilizing ethical frameworks to more effectively navigate situations that are ethically grey confidently and with better results.

MIS 515: Information Security in Public and Private Sectors (3 units)

This course exposes students to a broad range of cyber and information security topics focused on awareness of confidentiality, integrity, and availability. Course is approved by NSA/Committee on National Security Systems and accepted as a model curriculum course for the Information Systems Audit and Control Association (ISACA).

MGMT 561: Leading Organizational Change (3 units)

This course is designed to introduce you to the frameworks, competencies and skills required to lead change efforts within organizations.

ECON 551: Business Strategy (2 units)

This course is concerned with the long-term strategy of a business organization, identifying and analyzing past and current strategies and discusses formulating and implementing new ones.

MGMT 503: Human Resource Management (2 units)

Organizations are the primary vehicles through which most economic activity and social action occurs. Organizational structure, the different ways people can be grouped in organizations and the coordinating mechanisms for linking these groups together, have an important influence on the ability to accomplish organizational goals. Our objectives for this module are to develop a framework for understanding how formal and informal structure can be managed help solve critical organizational problems, and strengthen your analytical skills so that you can actively and critically use the framework to diagnose, manage, design, and change organizations.

OSCM 560: Operations Management (2 units)

Organizations use their operations to achieve their strategic objectives. While operations can be diverse, they have characteristics in common. This course focuses on those common attributes. The class will focus on managing processes, inventory, supply chain management, and the integration of operations with strategic issues.

FIN 510E: Survey of Finance as Analyst (2 units)

Survey of Finance as Analyst provides students with a rapidly paced but substantive view of the basic skills, concepts and analytical techniques employed in the Finance discipline, specifically as applied to modern corporations. This course has the perspective of the company "outsider": that of an analyst, broker, competitor or regulator. The course is a complement to Finance 510M, which takes the perspective of the company "insider". Discussions and techniques will be of benefit to the Financial Manager and non-Financial Manager alike. Specific topics include Financial Analysis, Time Value of Money, Risk, Stock and Bond Issuance, firm valuations and introductions to Derivatives. The knowledge and skills developed in the core economics, statistics, and accounting classes serve as the building blocks for this course.

BNAD 513: Global Context of Business (2 units)

This course will focus exclusively on key economic and competitive factors impacting national and industrial sector performance in an increasingly global and volatile marketplace. We will consider concepts and discuss examples that will assist students in grasping the complexities and dynamism of the global business environment. These concepts will include, but will not be limited to, the impact of foreign exchange markets on global transactions, the critical role played by international trade, effective management in the volatile environments of emerging markets, and managing across geographical, cultural, and ethical distance. This course seeks to globalize the lens through which students view business. We will consider a variety of perspectives and we will focus on various geographic regions, including the BRIC countries and Europe.

FIN 510M: Survey of Finance as Corporate Manager (2 units)

Survey of Finance as Corporate Manager is the compliment to Finance 510E. In this course, we examine the Finance field from the perspective of the "insider": a corporate Finance manager, focusing on the techniques and tools they utilize in their jobs, and how those tools and techniques are significant for the managers in other disciplines (operations, marketing, management). We examine the basic tools of finance -- Time Value of Money and Risk analysis, then show how these tools are applied in corporate decision making -- encompassing Capital Budgeting, Real Options, Working Capital Management, and Capital Structure analysis. Computational processes and analytic techniques will be the feature of most of the course; additionally, spreadsheet analysis tools will be featured.

MGMT 566: Advanced Negotiation (3 units)

Successful leaders and managers understand that negotiation skills greatly aid them to achieve their own and their organization's goals. This course introduces student's to the basic elements of negotiations, including preparing for negotiations and selecting the best negotiation strategy, and will explore the academic topic of negotiations in more depth. It is designed to provide the student with a much deeper understanding of the topic. This course is both skills and knowledge based. The student will be exposed to cutting-edge issues in the research of negotiations.

MKTG 579: Marketing of Innovations (3 units)

This course provides a market-based view of innovation and entrepreneurial activities. The focus is on how to apply an effective process to identify new product and entrepreneurial opportunities, and to develop an appropriate plan to bring the product to market. We will cover topics such as the emergence of innovative ideas, new product development within and beyond organizational boundaries, innovation in an entrepreneurial environment, and marketing strategies for innovations.

Mission and Outcomes

The Eller College of Management's mission is:

...to discover and share new knowledge that shapes the future of business and to educate the next generation of responsible, global leaders who embody the changing business world and possess the knowledge and drive to impact it.

The Eller Way

As students, faculty, and staff members at the Eller College of Management, we embrace a long and sustained culture of excellence. Our school is nationally recognized, and our contribution is critical to our continued elevation. Our standards are high and call us to:

Professional Skills

- Applies knowledge in new and unfamiliar circumstances through a conceptual understanding of relevant disciplines.
- Demonstrates the ability to adapt and innovate to solve problems, to cope with unforeseen events, and to manage in unpredictable environments.
- Leverages skills and experiences for career success.

Academic Requirements/Grades

Degrees

Graduate degrees will only be awarded to students that complete the program with a GPA of 3.0 or better, are in good standing with the University and are current on all University bills.

D or E Grade

If a grade of D or E is earned the course must be repeated.

- There is no grade replacement at the graduate level; therefore, the D or E will factor into the GPA
- The failed course will not count towards course completion requirements for graduation

Students who have a cumulative grade-point average of less than 3.0 will be placed on academic probation under the following conditions:

- Required to meet with the Graduate Faculty Director or the Masters Coordinator
- Must devise a written plan of action
- After a student is placed on academic probation, they will be allowed to register for one additional term
- Students whose GPA is below 3.0 for two consecutive semesters will be disqualified from the MBA program

“I” Incomplete Grade

The grade of I may be awarded only at the end of a session when all, but a minor portion of the course work has been satisfactorily completed. The grade of I is not to be awarded in place of a failing grade or when the student is expected to repeat the course; in such a case, a grade other than I must be assigned. Students should make arrangements with the instructor to receive an incomplete grade before the end of the term.

If the incomplete grade is not removed by the instructor within one year (the last day of finals one year later), the I grade will convert to a failing grade. For graduate courses, the one-year extension must be approved by the instructor and Graduate College dean, before the grade goes to an E, not after the fact. This extension requires the instructor and dean's signature on a Petition for Extension of Course Work.

“W” Withdrawal, Dropping a Course

Prior to the beginning of the second week of classes, official withdrawal (drop) of a course cancels the registration for the course. No approval is needed. No grade for the course will appear on the student's permanent record.

During the next three weeks, students may withdraw from a course with a grade of W awarded regardless of whether the student is passing at the time of withdrawal. No approval is needed. The W will appear on the student's permanent record.

After the fifth week of classes, the grade of W can be awarded only with the approval of the student's instructor and the Eller MBA Dean, and only under exceptional circumstances.

In the case of complete Withdrawal from the University, if a student withdraws before the end of the fourth week for graduate and professional students, no classes show on the student's permanent record. If a student withdraws from the University after the fourth week for graduate and professional students and before the final exam period, the grade of WC (withdrawal-complete) is awarded for all classes processed in the complete withdrawal.

Leave of Absence

General Information

It is not necessary for a student to apply for a Leave of Absence (LOA) if he or she has a registration record for that semester. A "W" counts as a registration record. A LOA is inappropriate for a student who withdraws from all classes after the start of a semester and gets "W" grades since a LOA presupposes no registration at all for a term. Since, in such cases, the student has maintained continuous enrollment by having a registration record, he or she is eligible to register the following semester (or Summer or Winter term) and will suffer no adverse effects due to the fact that he or she was not eligible to apply formally for a Leave.

Only academic services or facilities available to the general public can be used during the LOA. LOA's may affect the status of a graduate student's financial aid. Students are responsible for determining the requirements of their funding agency and/or academic unit prior to applying for a LOA.

If a student fails to register and does not have a Leave of Absence on file, the student will be discontinued from their program. A new application will be necessary for the student to continue in the program. Re-admission is not guaranteed. See Continuous Enrollment and Re-admission Policies for more information.

Academic Leaves

Academic LOAs (i.e., leaves to take course work at another university, for research, field work, internships, professional development, etc.) are handled on a case-by-case basis by the student's department and the Graduate College.

Medical Leaves

Graduate students in degree or certificate programs may be granted a Medical Leave of Absence by the Dean of the Graduate College. Further information may be found at:

Leave of Absence.

Personal Leaves

Graduate students in degree or certificate programs are typically granted a LOA for only one year throughout the course of their degree program. When circumstances warrant, this may be extended beyond one year with approval from the Dean of the Graduate College. LOAs are granted on a case-by-case basis for compelling reasons including birth or adoption of a child, personal or family reasons, medical reasons, military duty, or financial hardship. Students will maintain their status without reapplying to the department and the Graduate College at the expiration of the LOA.

Retroactive Leave of Absence

A retroactive leave request is any request made after the last day of finals in the semester. If a student does not request the leave by the last day of finals, he or she would need to apply for re-admission to the program. Under extraordinary circumstances, LOAs may be granted retroactively. In such cases, students will be readmitted without reapplying to the department and the Graduate College.

Requesting LOA

Students may request a Leave of Absence by submitting the Leave of Absence form to the program director.

For other information on how to resolve grievances see Graduate College Grievance Types and Responsible Parties.

Policies

Policies and Procedures

Graduate students are expected to follow all policies and procedures of UArizona and the Graduate College. It is the student's responsibility to stay up to date on changes and to comply with the most current policies and procedures.

Program Policies

All-Inclusive Program

The Executive MBA program cost is $77,000¹ for 43 required units.

The Executive MBA Program Costs Include:

- Tuition for MBA courses, including electives, during the 21-month program
- Course materials including textbooks in eBook format, articles, case studies, simulations, etc.
- Desire 2 Learn (D2L) access
- Lodging Friday nights during course weekends
- Lunch and snack foods/drinks on class days
- Wildcat Launch/orientation in Phoenix, AZ (hotel, if applicable, and most meals included)
- Global Business Experience* (international experience includes hotel, in-country activities and transportation, and most meals. Does not include international airfare and personal spending.)
- Strategic Innovation Experience (domestic experience includes hotel, activities and transportation, and most meals. Does not include domestic airfare and personal spending.)

¹ Additional costs include a non-refundable $90 application fee and non-refundable $500 enrollment fee, paid by the student prior to the start of the program.

*Global Business Experience subject to change

The Executive MBA program is an all-inclusive program. The components above are imbedded in the assessed tuition and fees and are not allocated between components. Refunds are not available for any portion of the tuition and fees, even if individual components are not utilized. An equivalent experience in lieu of a trip may be offered.

Students who take a leave of absence from the program may be subject to additional tuition and fee charges.*

Class Attendance

The Eller Executive MBA program is designed to maximize class time for working professionals. Program content is customized to fit the two in-person class weekends along with online content in each eight-week session. Attendance is expected on all class dates.

Upon approval, program administrators will accommodate occasional and limited absences for extenuating circumstances including documented mandatory work and work travel, health, or major life events. Absences for vacations and other pleasure/leisure activities will not be accommodated.

Team MBA reserves the right to administratively withdraw students from the class. In these cases, approved alternatives must be completed, including options of completion after the program, which may incur additional costs.

If you will be absent from a class, it is imperative that you notify the faculty in as far advance as possible and to make your absence known to the MBA team. However, even with an approved absence, missing classes can potentially affect your participation and grades. Faculty are under no obligation to provide replacement assignments or make-up work for missed class nights.

Platform Change

Eller MBA consists of four platforms, Full Time, Evening, Executive, and Online. Each program has unique elements that meet the needs of different student demographics. We make every effort to coach students into the right platform fit prior to starting their program.

Changes in platform after starting a program is not encouraged. However, we understand that, at times, changes are necessary. Students who are in good academic and financial standing may request a change in platform under two circumstances: documented work relocation, documented health challenges preventing continuation.

All platform changes are approved on a case-by-case basis, after review of submitted documentation. If approved, changes in tuition and other program fees may be applicable. *Please note: scholarships, discounts, and other tuition reduction programs do not transfer across platforms. Additionally, program management cannot guarantee similar expected graduation times.

Appeals

Graduate students have the right to request an exception or appeal of any policy or procedure. Eller MBA students may do this through contacting their program director. On a case-by-case basis, we will review exceptions to the policies for extenuating and compelling circumstances.

Eller MBA believes in creating an exceptional student experience that is fair and equitable for all. Requests are reviewed by Director Committee or by the MBA Associate Dean. Every exception decision is made based on each situation and circumstance.

A review of your request does not guarantee the request will be granted.

Graduation

In addition to meeting all of the program requirements, having a GPA of 3.0 or better as well as being current with all university bills, there are several forms that you will need to complete in order to be eligible for your program completion and graduation. These forms are collectively called GradPath forms.

GradPath Forms

To access your GradPath Forms you will need to log on to your UAccess account. From the Advising dropdown menu on your Student Center, select GradPath. The following four (4) forms must be completed in sequential order.

1. Responsible Conduct of Research Statement

This form is an acknowledgement and acceptance of the University's Academic Code of Integrity. This form must be completed by the second semester of your program. Completing this form allows you to access the next form in the GradPath.

2. Master's Plan of Study (MPoS)

This form documents your entire program coursework and academics. This form must also be completed by the second semester of your program. Please list Paige Bausman as your Faculty Advisor. If your Plan of Study is declined for any reason, you will receive an automated message alerting you. Once you log into UAccess and view your GradPath forms, you will be provided with a reason for the denial and instructions on how to proceed.

3. Master's Committee Appointment Form

This form will not be available until the MPoS has been approved. Pending the submission and approval of your MPoS, this form must be completed by the third month in your final semester. When asked whether or not you have a committee answer NO.

4. Master's Completion Form.

This form requires no action on your part. The MBA Department will report completion for a master's student to notify the Graduate College that the student has satisfied all departmental requirements for the degree. Your MBA Director (Megan Forristall) will complete this form.

Career and Professional Development

What We Do?

We educate and empower students to apply their professional development skills to achieve their career goals.

eSMS – Students will use eSMS to schedule coaching appointments and register for events. Sign in with your NetID and password at <https://student.esms.arizona.edu>.

1:1 Career Coaching - Schedule time to meet with Executive/Career coach, Suzanne McFarlin, to discuss your career goals, have your resume or LinkedIn profile reviewed, or find answers to questions related to your job search. You can schedule time with Suzanne in eSMS.

JobCats – Eller MBA Professional Development produces a weekly e-newsletter for students that communicates important events and lists new MBA level internships based on industry. Send us an e-mail request to opt-in: ellermbacareer@eller.arizona.edu

Professional Development Resource Center (D2L)

<https://d2l.arizona.edu>

This password-protected site houses many great resources for MBA students. It is accessible on your D2L page as "Professional Development Resource Center" and go to the "Resources & Trends" folder.

Company Information Sessions – Company presentations are a great forum for students to learn about different companies and career opportunities, as well as meet directly with company representatives. Companies host info sessions each semester. Sign-up to attend through eSMS.

BNAD 514 – The Professional Development Team offers this Career Management course twice a year in Online MBA and as an elective for the Professional MBA students. Learn how to tailor your resume, update your LinkedIn, and start your job search. Register today!

What Students Should Do?

Eller MBA offers many resources to students to support your career journey. You are the driver of your own path, and here are some professional development steps you can take.

Take the CareerLeader Assessment. Assess your interests, motivators, skills and potential career matches. Think about how you would like to advance your career. Then, begin researching the functions and industries that appeal to you. To access the assessment, send an e-mail to: ellermbacareer@eller.arizona.edu

Update your résumé and LinkedIn profile - Use the EllerMBA Résumé Template that can be found on the Professional Development Resource Center of D2L to update your current résumé. Schedule a meeting with Suzanne McFarlin to review any of your job search/application documents.

Jobscan - This platform provides resume key word optimization, compares your resume with the jobposting and determines the level of match. For access, send an e-mail to:
ellermbacareer@eller.arizona.edu

Network! You never know who may be able to help connect you to your next step. Reach out and talk to former colleagues, classmates, friends, and family to start, and then build out your network with alumni and employees in your function or industry of interest. Join the Eller MBA Networking Group on LinkedIn today to get started!

Job Search Resources

MBA Exchange - Search and apply to thousands of MBA level jobs and development programs, access both employer directories and country guides. For access, send an e-mail to:
ellermbacareer@eller.arizona.edu

Please read the following statement and indicate your agreement by providing your signature below.

I understand that my registration for courses in the program will only be completed upon receipt of my Eller MBA enrollment form, my holding fee, and clearance from Campus Health regarding mandatory immunizations.

For subsequent courses, I understand that in order for my registration to go smoothly, I must clear any holds in UAccess, have my tuition account paid in full and maintain good academic standing with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better.

I have read the Eller MBA Student Conduct, starting on page 7 of this document, and I understand and agree to fulfill the requirements therein and my program's expectations. If I incur a challenge in fulfilling the expectations and responsibilities, I will first contact my Program Director to discuss the matter. I understand that failure to meet any of the following criteria will subject me to consequences including those listed by the Dean of Students. Requirements include but are not limited to the following:

- Maintain good standing with the University
 - Academic Requirements as defined by the Graduate College
 - Code of Academic Integrity as defined by the Dean of Students
- Meet the expectations outlined in the Student Code of Conduct as defined by the Dean of Students
- Fulfill financial obligations and work directly with the Bursar's office, Veteran's Affairs, and Financial Aid to maintain good standing
- Maintain professional appearance and decorum
- Complete and contribute effectively to group work
- Complete program surveys
- Fulfill my expectations as defined by the program.

Thank you for taking the time to read the Executive MBA Student Handbook. If you have any questions or comments about this Handbook, please contact the Executive MBA staff.

Please sign one Acknowledgment page and return to EMBA Program Manager, stating that you have read, understand, and agree to abide by the guidelines and procedures outlined in the Executive MBA Student Handbook, including the Academic Requirements, Code of Academic Integrity and Student Code of Conduct guidelines.
